6

During the spring of 2009, Yris Publishers - which specialize in quality books on TV series - asked Patrick Ducher and Jean-Michel Philibert to work on an update to their book "Le Prisonnier, une énigme télévisuelle", first published at the end of 2003. The project did not materialize at the time. Yris then got back to the authors at the beginning of the autumn 2010, and the file was re-opened right away.

Apart from a few minor corrections, the new edition includes a section on the 2009 AMC remake on the one hand, and, on the other hand, features a larger section on merchandising. The book boasts 272 pages and a new layout. More pictures and documents have also been added.

Patrick Ducher is the chairman of "rÔdeur", a non-profit making society dedicated to The Prisoner in France. He took part in the release of the TF1 DVD box set and is a Six of One coordinator.

He launched a series of booklets entitled "The Supervisor's Files", based on The Prisoner, Danger and Patrick McGoohan specifically for the French fans.

Jean-Michel Philibert is a teacher. He founded the "rÔdeur", the first and only Prisoner society in France. He is now its honorary President. Jean-Michel wrote the script of two graphic novels based on the series which were published by the French society a few years ago.
